Would you like to reach the gluten-free consumer in the Netherlands?
Then the Netherlands Coeliac Society (NCV) is your partner!

The NCV is the charity for people who need to live without gluten. With more than 21,000 members, the NCV is a flourishing patients' association for people with coeliac disease, dermatitis herpetiformis and other gluten-related disorders. Every month some 140 new members join the NCV. It is our mission to improve the lives of people on a gluten-free diet by providing independent, evidence-based information and support, being a strong advocate for better and faster diagnosis of coeliac disease, better access to gluten-free food, and investing in research into coeliac disease.

Collaboration

Through the NCV there are various possibilities for bringing your business or brand to the attention of the gluten-free consumer.

- By certifying your products gluten free with the internationally recognised Crossed Grain trademark you gain a competitive market edge. If your business is based in the Benelux, you can obtain the licence through the NCV.
- By advertising in our quarterly Glutenvrij Magazine, our newsletter or online on www.glutenvrij.nl.
- By having a product or company brochure included in our monthly Welcome Box for new members.
- By taking part in our gluten-free markets.
